

What Is The Love And An Arranged Marriage Difference?

In an arranged marriage, the relationship of the boy and the girl is decided by the family and after that when the family likes the boy and the girl, they introduce them and fix their marriage. In an arranged marriage, both families agree. Whereas in a love marriage, first the boy and the girl like each other and then decide to live together. After making the decision, they know the consent of the family. According to love marriage prediction by date of birth, many times it happens that the family does not like the choice of the boy or the girl and they do not agree. But in love marriage, the boy and the girl do not give much importance to the consent of the family and put more emphasis on each other's consent.

Which is better an arranged marriage or a love marriage?

1 - By doing arranged marriage, not only does the family get support but in the future, if there is any problem in the relationship, the family stands with the partner.

2 - In an arranged marriage, the boy and the girl are unaware of each other's likes and dislikes. In such a situation, they try to understand and recognize each other, which is a good experience in itself. Also, they take the family members along in the beginning. This also increases their confidence.

3 - If the boy and the girl are thinking about a dream wedding in an arranged marriage, then this dream can be fulfilled in an arranged marriage. According to love marriage astrology, this is because both families together organize functions and big events so that the wedding can be enjoyed to the fullest.

4 - In a love marriage, the person already knows the partner's nature, family, background, temperament, etc. In such a situation, the boy and the girl hurt each other less after marriage and take care of each other's choices.

5 - In love marriage, many times people consider attraction as love, which is understood after marriage. This loosens the bond of the relationship a bit.

6 - In a love marriage, full support of the family members is not available. In such a situation, the boy and the girl are deprived of the experience of the elders and end up making some mistakes in their married life.

7 - The good thing about love is that people make their own decisions and live their lives in their own way. Even in such a situation, they do not feel any kind of pressure on themselves.
